

OPEN HOUSE

Meet the members of the 2006 US-Thai Free Trade Agreement Speaking Tour

Saturday, October 21, 2006, 4:00 to 7:00 pm

at the

Home of Tom, Kathy and Kyra Busch
Organic Fair Trade Thai Jasmine Rice will be served

Funded by Oxfam-America and organized by ENGAGE (Educational Network for Global and Grassroots Exchange), the Speaking Tour focuses on proposed regulations in the US-Thai Free Trade Agreement that would limit Thailand's ability to produce and import generic versions of medicines and jeopardize its access to high quality affordable medicine. The three week Speaking Tour will include programs in San Francisco, New York City, Washington DC, Philadelphia, Austin, Chicago, and Minneapolis, including presentations on Capitol Hill sponsored by senators and congressional representatives.

The members of the Tour are:

Boripat Donmon, Vice President of the Thai Network for People Living with HIV/AIDS
Jiraporn Limpananont, Associate Professor, Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok
Sangsiri Teemanka, AIDS Access Foundation

Their guides and translators are:

Kyra Busch, ENGAGE Global Action Director (from West Lafayette)
Brigid O'Keane, ENGAGE US-Thai FTA Campaign Coordinator

The purpose of the gathering is to provide an opportunity for people from Thailand and Indiana to meet and share ideas. The speakers will be glad to discuss Thailand, trade justice, rice, AIDS, or whatever interests you.

ENGAGE builds the next generation of global citizens by translating the study abroad experience into lifelong connections and cooperative action between peoples and social movements working toward a just and sustainable world.

Learn more about the ENGAGE organization as well as the 2006 US-Thai FTA Speaking Tour by visiting <http://www.engagetheworld.org>